STATE AND NATIONAL BANKS.

STATE AND NATIONAL BANKS.
It has been ascertained at the Currency Bureau that the State Banks of Massachusetts and New-York are rapidly being converted into National Banks. Those of Rhode Island have commenced availing themselves of the enabling act recently passed, and banks all over the country manifest a similar disposition. The law allows National banks to issue one-sixth of their circulation in notes of less denomination than five dellars. The Currency Bureau has received some of such money, which will be issued to the banks in the order of their organization. GEN. PATRICK.

GEN. PATRICK.

In view of the early addition of Gen. Sherman's army to those of Gen. Meade and Gen. Ord, under the administration of Provost Marshal-Gen. Patrick, it has been found necessary to relieve Gen. Patrick of the details of the Marshal's office connected with the Army of the Potomae, by transferring them to Brevet Brig-Gen. Macy, some time ago appointed Provost Marshal of Meade's ermy, Gen. Patrick has had charge of these duties since September, 1862, and to him is due, more than to any other gentleman, the admirable discipline and esprit du corps of the army during the campaign through the Wilderness, and the long season of comparative inactivity at Petersburg. All the business of trade permits transportation for good, e., connected with the armies operating against Richmond, is made subject to his approval at Gen. Grant's bendquariers, and with the addition of the armies now in North Caroline, the Provost Marshal's Department becomes second to none of the organizations created by the necessities of the war.

The order forbidding persons from going into warehouses, beside the reason above stated, was to prevent the Releel Government's agents from acting fire to it, which was several times attempted by them. Mr. Draper, in a public notice announced that any statement that any party desired to make concerning the cotton would be received by an agent designated for that purpose. Many statements were made and have been carefully viewed by Mr. Draper, and at the proper time will receive due consideration from the Secretary of the Treasury. Within the next ten days a part of the cotton will be advertised for sale in New-York.

GOTISCHALE'S THIRD CONCERT.

The third concert of Gottschalk's farewell the day's march, the cavalry hosts, in response to the acries took place at Niblo's Saloon last night, and despite trumpet calls, being gradually formed into line. the down pouring rain every seat was taken, and there was but little standing room. Although Gottschelk was not in such splendid one as on the previous evening white-House estate. Gen. Custar's mounted veterans he played very finely. The piece which we thought specially noticeable was the "Marche Funetre," by Chapin. This he played solidly and grandly, throwing into it all the gravity of passion it required. The burst of wild yet tender grief which speaks all through the beautiful moremort in the major, was rendered with ex-quisite pathos and serviment, and fully realized the thought of the composer. After the encore of the 'Marlborough' burlesque, he played his "Recordate," mingle the mounted heroes of the valley with their fastry comrades and compatriots of the Potomac and ful deamy, passionate expression, which is irresistibly touching and perfectly fuscinating.
